THE GOLDEN AGE OF CONTACTEES

WELCOME SPACE BROTHERS?

by Timothy Green Beckley

It was the predecessor to the Age of Aquarius.

It was the era of the long haired Space Brothers.

The devastation of the atomic bomb.

And the first indication of government tampering with the UFO phenomenon and with those involved in a mystery that was spreading across the globe like an out of control plague.

It was the Golden Age Of Flying Saucers and the era of the contactee in which aliens were seemingly interacting with humans in a variety of ways, including telepathic communications and taking them for rides into outer space aboard their circular and cigar-shaped craft.

Their names are familiar to those who were part of the movement, or who have collected the literature from the 1950s and 60s. There was George Adamski, the king of the contactees; George van Tassel, who built a rejuvenation "machine" in the middle of the desert; Orfeo Angelucci who saw a tiny tain of a space "scow" from the Planet Clarion, a world never seen because it remains hidden behind the

BEAUTIFUL BLONDES FROM VENUS

Unlike the odd looking humanoids and grey aliens of today, the saucer pilots of the contactee era were so human in appearance that it is said they could easily blend in with your average American, walking down the streets of Any Town, USA totally undetected. They were mostly Caucasian looking, had long, wavy, blond hair with piercing blue or green eyes. Most of the contactees were male, but as researcher/blogger Regan Lee points out in our reprint of UP RAINBOW HILL, Dane Howard was an exception. Her story was perhaps a bit more romantic, a bit more New Age, with its talk of cosmic love from the stars, and its visions of a Martian-like space being who materialized before her as early as 1939. In this classic tome, Dana discusses her transformation from a “normal person,” to one consumed by universal laws, teleportation, space travel, and things most women of the era would not have an understanding of or liking for. I would dare say Dana Howard was the Shirley MacLaine of her time!

Nick Redfern moved to the States from the UK a while back. A top notch Bigfoot/monster hunter and author of books on conspiracies, I was sort of surprised when his latest work CONTACTEES: A HISTORY OF ALIEN-HUMAN INTERACTION arrived in the mail. Nick has been on more talk shows than anyone else I can think of in this field. He is

What In The World Is Going On???

- ★ Was The Government Involved In Some Sort Of DISINFORMATION PROGRAM To Hide The Truth – Or To Promote A False Alien Agenda?
- ★ If The Stories Told By The Contactees Were All Fabricated Why Did The FBI Keep Such Close Tabs On George Adamski And Others?

IS IT POSSIBLE THEY ARE STILL WALKING AMONG US BUT HAVE SIMPLY GONE UNDERGROUND?

A full-time author and investigator, Nick Redfern has specialized in delving into a wide range of unsolved mysteries, including UFOs, alien contact, Bigfoot, the Loch Ness Monster, government conspiracies, and paranormal phenomena.

In this newly published work CONTACTEES, Redfern gets down into the trenches to examine the band of eerily human-looking, blond-haired visitors who early on expressed their concern about our warlike ways and their desire for us to live in peace with one another. Acting on the visitors’ advice, these men and women spread the ETs message to anyone and everyone who would listen. And many did listen, including U.S. government agencies.

a frequent guest on Coast to Coast, the Paracast and Speaking of Strange, usually talking about werewolves, lake monsters and Mothman. Why this new book I wondered, and why his infatuation with the contactee movement? I just had to ask REDFERN: Well, I've always had a fascination for the contactees, and for several reasons: when I got interested in UFOs as a kid, I read as much as I could on the subject that dealt more with the government angle (Keyhoe, Hynek, Stringfield, etc); but I also picked up in my early teens a lot of stuff like van Tassel, Menger, Bethurum etc. And, the stories were so wild and entertaining - and sometimes eerie - that it's difficult to dismiss them. A lot of people in UFOlogy today dismiss the contactee era as having no real relevance to Ufology; and, as a result, there is actually quite a lack of deep knowledge and awareness of the subject in today's UFOlogical arena. But, the fact is, that particularly from a cultural perspective, the Contactee Age was an absolute staple part of UFOlogy in the 50s. So, I figured that, having an interest in the subject, why not bring the old stories - as well as my theories concerning what may be going on with the contactees - to a new audience?

BECKLEY: Which of the contactees do you seem most impressed by? Did you have a chance to interact with any of them personally?

REDFERN: Yes, I've met quite a few contactees, such as Bob Short, Wayne Aho (who died a few years ago), as well as a lot of "silent contactees" -

DANA HOWARD'S SPACE
CONTACT WAS A BEAUTIFUL,
BLONDE, EIGHT FOOT TALL
WOMAN WHO MATERIALIZED
IN FRONT OF A ROOMFUL OF PEOPLE

All Aboard!

The great Golden Age Of Flying Saucers – complete with encounters that bordered on the outrageous – ran from the early 1950s for just about a decade. During this period, dozens of individuals came forward with seemingly farfetched stories of having established an ongoing relationship with benevolent – almost angelic – beings from space.

With a few exceptions, these contacts took place in the desert regions of California and Arizona, and sometimes the proud earthlings who became known in pop culture as “contactees,” were honored by being invited inside the exotic, airborne, “circular foils” of the visitors for a test ride into outer space. Some even insisted they had stepped out onto the worlds from which their newly found ET friends had arrived.

Some of the best known names from the Golden Age of Flying Saucers include George Adamski, George van Tassel, Truman Bethrum, George Hunt Williamson, Howard Menger, Orfeo Angelucci and a farmer named Buck Nelson who, with his dog Bo, established a strong bond with the space beings who landed quite regularly outback of his farm in the Ozarks.

For the most part the UFO contactees were men, but Dana Howard was a rare exception. Her first contact transpired in 1939, about which she said:

“Still wrapped in the warm intoxication of the spirit, my vision was directed to a gnarled old tree overlooking the antediluvian hills. Leaning casually against the grotesque trunk was a woman being of unsurpassed loveliness. Her head was radiant with a crown of fire, strands of golden hair cascading gently over her beautiful, slightly olive-tinted shoulders. The strange mystic light flooding her dark, prophetic eyes, added a wistful something to all her other charms.”

This is when Dana Howard noticed a strange object suspended in mid-air about three hundred feet above the ground. “. . .In the main it seemed to be constructed of some sort of translucent materials, but trimmed in gold, and gem-studded. An almost invisible ladder extended from the ship to the earth, and I obediently followed the radiant being up the filmy stairs without questioning.”

It wasn't until sixteen years later that Dana had her second encounter when the same radiant being materialized in front of a group of individuals gathered for an occult workshop in Los Angeles. By this time New Age philosophies were widely being accepted and so no one cringed or got “spooked out” when this beautiful being appeared out of thin air and announced that she was from Venus and wished to speak directly with Ms Howard. What followed was an ongoing series of contacts that lasted for several years and culminated in a series of UFO contact books by Dana Howard, including this classical reprint of UP RAINBOW HILL.

those people who have had very distinct and classic contactee experiences, but who choose not to go public with their stories. But, I've spoken to a number of such "silent contactees" whose stories are classics of the "long-haired alien in the desert" type.

BECKLEY: Wouldn't you have to admit that what's going on in UFOlogy seems a good distance away in terms of philosophy as well as the reality of what's going around in the sky (i.e. abductions, crashes, etc).

REDFERN: Yes. There's no doubt in my mind at all that there are a lot of absurdities within UFOlogy, and particularly so within the contactee world, which (for me, at least) points to deception, manipulation, and an intent to keep the issue of what's going on completely and utterly confused. And someone, or something, is doing a very good job of that too!

BECKLEY: If such contacts were taking place, why in a lot of cases does it seem that the UFO-nauts were ignoring those with approved credentials and instead more or less communicated with those of lesser virtue — some of whom might have even had shady pasts which would have encumbered their being believed by the public?

REDFERN: My personal view is that one of the intents of the intelligence behind the contactee phenomenon was (and now to a lesser degree than in the 1950s) to provoke both deception and confusion about the UFO subject; and that much thought was given as to how contact should be initiated. Many of the experiences seemed suspiciously staged-managed and even altered-states-like. There's actually - as I'm sure you and everyone who has studied the contactee phenomenon is aware - a lot of parallels between the meetings with the Space Brothers in deserts, on mountains etc and those reports of meetings with angels, higher religious entities etc. In other words, one man's long-haired Space Brother is another man's angel. There's a phenomenon behind both, and it's intent is to both inform and confuse, and to get us to think; and sometimes it uses definitive characters: as many of the contactees certainly were. It's a classic trickster-style intelligence, in that sense; and not aliens from Venus.

BECKLEY: How much of what was being spoken of might have been dis-information?

THE TREE OF LIFE

Old Testament Prophets Knew Its Significance

STUDY GUIDE

BEAUTIFUL

PRODUCT

The Kabbalah has been in the news recently as numerous celebrities...such as Madonna...have begun to study and apply its ancient laws, as they go about searching for spiritual guidance in their own lives.

The non-initiated have long been taught that the Kabbalah is virtually impossible to understand and impractical to use; that is, unless a person is well educated in the ancient Biblical languages from which these sacred writings have been taken. Until now only a few learned Rabbi have retained this mystic and highly occult knowledge and they have, for the most part, kept these arcane secrets to themselves. Now, however, there are some who feel strongly, due to the need to reawaken spiritual values in the world, that this knowledge must be shared.

Among the secrets of the Kabbalah are those pertaining to the Mystical Tree Of Life. The Tree Of Life is a powerful symbol and tool for using God's energies everyday. The symbol dates from the dawn of creation and was supposed to be shared with humankind so that all good things could become manifest and we could have everything we desire in life. When used properly in prayer and meditation it, in effect, acts as a communications device to speak directly with God...a sort of Telephone To The Heavens. It is said that there is no stronger, no more powerful, amulet in all of creation.

In our research we have found a very talented jewelry crafter who has managed to capture the Tree Of Life amulet in its true Kabbalistic form. There are other, less powerful versions being sold. Individually cast in silver with 11 faceted stones, this beautiful pendant consists of two main pillars, a middle pillar, and eleven spheres, or sephirot, located on each of the pillars. The spheres act as emanations or forms of energy with specific qualities and their placement is important, as the thirty-two paths that lead from one to another become paths of knowledge, awareness, wisdom and ultimately lead to oneness with God. The Tree Of Life pendant offers a deep reflection into the eternal mysteries of the universe and should only be used for beneficial and positive purposes.

REDFERN: I would actually say most of it. I personally believe that the genuinely unknown intelligence that lies at the heart of the contactee puzzle has consistently lied with respect to its origin. Do I think there could be long-haired aliens living on Mars or Venus? Not in the slightest - at all. That's totally absurd. Do I think there was a desire on the part of the intelligence to have such themes circulate amongst society in the 1950s? Yes. So, the contactees (in my view) have been manipulated, but they are not necessarily the manipulators.

BECKLEY: If some of the contactees were part of a disinformation program, were any of them aware that they were being "used?" And what was the purpose of any such disinformation attempts?

REDFERN: I have a number of chapters in the book that look at such issues as (a) whether the intelligence behind the UFOs were spreading disinformation; (b) if the US Government was using the contactees and their stories to confuse the true nature of the UFO phenomenon - whatever that may be; (c) the extent to which such controversial CIA operations - such as MK-Ultra - may have played a role in the spreading and instilling of disinformation; and (d) if the former Soviet Union may have used unwitting contactees to spread disinformation suggesting the aliens had communist leanings.

BECKLEY: What agencies might have been behind this campaign to throw the public off the track? Is this still going on today?

Timothy G. Beckley

REDFERN: Good questions! The FBI was definitely interested in the contactees: I got hold of FBI files, for example, on van Tassel, Adamski, Stranges, Harold Berney, George Hunt Williamson, Bethurum, and several others. The FBI was clearly aware of the contactee arena, who was talking to whom, and what about. The CIA is also tied to watching the contactees, as were elements of the British police force, and Russian Intelligence. There are a number of indications of potential high-level meddling in the contactee field in the 1950s by official agencies. I don't see hard evidence of it today in the contactee field, however.

BECKLEY: Were the contactees themselves the most important part of the stories the contactees were telling, or was the philosophy the name of the game?

REDFERN: Without doubt it was the philosophy. There are good grounds for thinking, I conclude at least, that many of the contactees firmly adhered to the ideas and beliefs they were trying to get across, even if some of them may have outright distorted the nature of the events and their actual role in the events, as a means to increase their significance and importance. But, it's the message that the intelligence behind the phenomenon creates (which has masqueraded throughout history in many forms, not just as long-haired ETs) that we should be focusing on. Their philosophy may ultimately turn out to be good or not so good for us. I think there is a good argument for suggesting there might even be something quite ominous behind the love-and-light Space Brother talk.

BECKLEY: Could it possibly be that the “aliens” themselves were trying to throw everyone off the track? Might it be that they only said they came from other planets, when their true point of origin might be somewhere else? Any clues we can look for in the stories as related?

REDFERN: I'm absolutely sure that is the case. The problem is that much of UFOlogy has looked at the contactee issue in very black-and-white and literal terms. By that, I mean they conclude the contactees were either telling the literal truth or were literal, outright charlatans. Very few give much consideration to the possibility that deception was the name of the game, and that the contactees were the pawns. Now, it doesn't necessarily mean that this is a sinister deception - although it could well be. Rather, it just means we need to tread very carefully when either endorsing with utterly open arms, or totally dismissing the claims of the Space Brothers and the contactees. There's actually a whole chapter in the book, which is based on an interview I did with Mac Tonnies - who tragically died a couple of months ago - about his Cryptoterrestrial theory: the notion that perhaps the “aliens” are a very ancient, Earth-based society that masquerades as alien to move among us, and throws us off the scent of their real origins. So, there's a lot to think about re the Contactees that goes far, far beyond the simplistic real vs. hoax scenario. And that's what Skeptics claim that the Arabian Nights story of the Aladdin and his discovery of the supernatural lantern inside a concealed cave is total myth. Yet manuscripts uncovered in a French museum show that stories of the Genie are way more than simple legend, and that these paranormal entities have been classified for centuries by the world's most acclaimed spiritual teachers as a subclass of nonmaterial being existing somewhere between angels and humans.

NOW you can use your own replica of this ancient lamp to host a personal Genie that King Solomon is said to have summoned and commanded to build his fabled “Solomon's Temple.” The magic of these elementals have been known and used by Egyptian priests and great men such as Moses who adapted much of the magic associated with the Djinn in his own rituals to converse with the Heavenly Kingdom.

WITH YOUR PERSONALLY EMPOWERED LAMP, you will receive four different types of incense as well as a powerful incantation that, it is said, will enable the Genie to hear and respond to your wishes in a positive and forthright manner.

☐ FOR YOUR ALADDIN'S LAMP, Incense Kit, and Incantation, send $27.00 plus $5.00 S/H to: Inner Light • Box 753 • New Brunswick, NJ 08903

I've tried to get across in the book.

BECKLEY: One last thing Nick, what is your opinion about the "big three" contactees – Adamski, van Tassel and George King?

REDFERN: As with the contactees in general, unlike a lot of researchers, I don't look at Adamski in literal black-and-white terms. For many today, Adamski was nothing more than an outright hoaxer. Others take all his claims literally. I view him somewhere in-between. I view him as a person who probably had a deep belief in the philosophies and lifestyles he was promoting. I think he was primed to have such experiences because of his background with the Royal Order of Tibet. I think he made the fatal mistake of expanding on what were almost certainly very spiritual and mind-to-mind contacts with unknown-intelligences, by fabricating and adding colorful tales to keep him in the spotlight.

As for George van Tassel, I see him as one of the most important figures within the contactee arena. The fact of the matter is that his yearly conventions – attracted literally thousands of attendees. And this is in stark contrast to anything today's UFO conference organizers can claim. In fact, I kind of see a parallel between van Tassel and the other contactees with the so-called Beats: Kerouac, Ginsberg, etc. In the sense that as the Beats transformed the written word, so van tassel and the contactees profoundly twisted 1950s UFOlogy. van Tassel also has the distinction of being the contactee with the longest FBI file.

And despite his controversial claims, George King and the Atherius Society attracted massive followings, and no one in today's UFO scene can do that. I personally believe some form of higher intelligence was using King, and it may well have been literally ETS, or at least, alien in a sense we don't understand. It was trying to get a message across, and King was one of the vehicles for spreading that message.

Researcher Micah Hanks www.GralienReport.com blogger and substitute host of Joshua Warren's Speaking Of Strange Saturday night broadcast on Ashville, NC's WWNC radio is convinced Nick Redfern among a few others is on the right track when considering the contactees as more than hoaxers and tall tale tellers. He concludes quite rightly:

"With his new book Contactees: A History of Alien-Human Interaction, Nick Redfern has placed himself at the pinnacle of what may be the strangest aspect of modern UFOlogy.

The contactee element is in many ways distinguishable from all other aspects of the UFO experience. For instance, many contactees claim to have met and interacted with extra-terrestrial intelligences without falling victim to popular (and often sensationalized) abduction reports that have become so common.

Then consider George

Adamski, "The Ultimate Contactee." Adamski, if his claims of travel to distant planets like Venus are to be believed, seemed to have been a willing recipient. "Someone take me down the road quick," Redfern writes, quoting the famous contactee. "That ship has come looking for me and I don't want to keep them waiting!" Then there are backwoods exploits of Ralph Lael, who upon entering caves in the Black Mountains of Western North Carolina began a strange series of communications with aliens from the planet Peewam (fortune smiled upon Lael in the truest sense, as his alien captors closely resembled scantily-clad ladies in bikinis).

Indeed, contactees outlines a peculiar subculture that remains present in the fringes of Americana, and though well known to some, it has received its best treatment thanks to the efforts of Redfern. With the information provided in this book, one may even begin to interpret the manner and appearances of UFO craft throughout the decades... perhaps the next move of the trans-generational "Space Brothers" lies within its very words."

TIM BECKLEY'S BIG BOOK OF WEREWOLVES - IN REALITY! FOLK-LORE! IN CINEMA! AND IN LUST! (Book And Audio CD)—Werewolves are not just the work of horror writers, master cinematographers or special effects wizards. As well as being a respected paranormal researcher, Beckley has also garnered a reputation as a B-Movie horror host using the moniker MR Creepo. Calling upon noted experts in cryptozoology — Nick Redfern, Linda Godfrey, Brad Steiger, Tim Swartz, Sean Casteel and Sabine Baring-Gould — Beckley has compiled a virtually exhaustive history of Lycanthropy, as well as the phenomenon of shape-shifting which has been reported in all cultures throughout history. A portion of this fully illustrated, large-size, volume is devoted to the “sexual hunger” of the Werewolf, and how to stop the beast in its tracks...and it's not just with silver bullets and wolfbane!—$22.00.

DRAGONS AND UNICORNS: FACT? FICTION?

(Two Completely Revised Illustrated Books In One Large-Sized Volume!)—We fear them...revere them...wish we could have them do our bidding...They live in our dreams and haunt our nightmares! Dragons and Unicorns. The authors take us beyond folk lore and legend to an invisible realm where such creatures are part of everyday reality...DRAGONS: Few creatures of folklore and mythology conjure up more sinister and magical images than the Dragon. Also known as the fire Drake, these mercurial creatures pervade almost every pantheon of classic literature. Said to be larger than elephants, they are generally accepted as having bat-like wings, twin horns of varying length, and a fiery breath that can destroy all that comes in their path...UNICORNS: are mentioned in Greek literature, in India and throughout Europe. The strange legends of the Dragon and the Unicorn persist to this very day. Figment of the Imagination? Misinterpretation of ordinary creatures? Symbolic of a mystery occult school? Beautifully illustrated, this large 8x11 format book will pique your interest and keep you entertained for hours as you travel around the world in the present and the past in search of creatures thought to have been made of imagination; but which probably have some basis in a physical reality.—$22.00.

THERE IS POWER IN EVERYTHING WE UTTER!
LEARN THE HIDDEN TRUTH BEHIND...

The Word

Words are SPOKEN as rewards from those we love, or used as weapons to cause hurt.

Words inspire us. They form an atomic link or spirit to the very Presence of God. They can also evoke the very presence of evil. They can bring either miracles or mayhem, love or lust, health or sickness, gratification or utter despair. The tongue and every word we speak contains the power of life or death.

$20.00 + $5.00 S/H

Words have the power to bring blessing or to curse through the energy they contain. Words combined with love, wisdom and Divine inspiration are like apples of gold on trays of silver.

Used properly – as this book by Dr Johnson shows how – Words can bring us to the next level of physical, concrete reality.

As a nation and cosmic neighbor, we must be the truth bringers and see the light of God in each person regardless if we are Christian, Muslim or Wiccan.

ALIEN HARVEST

Not All "Alien" Beings Are Friendly!
Sometimes You Have To Confront
The Terror Before You. . .
Grey Aliens and the Harvesting of Souls : The Conspiracy to Genetically Tamper with Humanity

Join Nigel Kerner as he exposes the agenda behind the bio-robotic grey aliens' genetic manipulation of certain human races.

- Reveals the Grey's nature as sophisticated self-aware machines created by a long vanished extra-terrestrial civilization.
- Explains how their quest to capture human souls appears in the historical record from biblical times.
- Explains how the phenomenon of racism is a by-product of their genetic tampering.

In 1997 Nigel Kerner first introduced the notion of aliens known as Greys coming to Earth, explaining that Greys are sophisticated biological robots created by an extra-terrestrial civilization they have long since outlived. In this new book Grey Aliens And The Harvesting Of Souls, Kerner reveals that the Greys are seeking to master death by obtaining something humans possess that they do not: souls.

Through the manipulation of human DNA, these aliens hope to create their own souls and, thereby, escape the entropic grip of the material universe in favor of the timeless realm of spirit.

Kerner explains that genetic manipulation by the Greys has occurred since biblical times and has led to numerous negative qualities that plague humanity, such as violence, greed, and maliciousness. Racism, he contends, was developed by the aliens to prevent their genetic experiments from being compromised by breeding with others outside their influence. Examining historical records, Kerner shows that Jesus, who represented an uncorrupted genetic line, warned his disciples about the threat posed by these alien interlopers, while Hitler, a pure product of this alien intelligence, waged genocide in an attempt to rid Earth of all those untouched by this genetic tampering. Despite the powerful grip the Greys have on humanity, Kerner says that all hope is not lost. Greys exist wholly in the material world, so if we follow the spiritual laws of reincarnation and karma, aiming for enlightenment and rising above the material—a state the Greys are unable to reach—we can free ourselves from their grasp.

About the Author(s) of Grey Aliens and the Harvesting of Souls

Nigel Kerner is a screenwriter, journalist, and author of The Song of the Greys. He lives in England.

From Nick Redfern Comes Praise for Grey Aliens and the Harvesting of Souls

"... a detailed study that is certain to send shockwaves throughout the world of UFO research, Kerner offers a terrifying theory to explain the presence of the so-called extraterrestrial Greys on our world. Far from being the benevolent visitors that many alien-abductees believe them to be, in reality they are cold and clinical creatures whose stark and terrible task is to reap and manipulate our very life-force: the human soul, for purposes both nefarious and ominous."

Among Acclaimed Esoteric Teacher's Last Work Now Combined With Magic Of The Inner Light Blessing Kit

MAGIC OF THE INNER LIGHT! LET THE ANGELS GUIDE YOU!

Secret Words, Meditations & Candle Burning Spells To Feel Healthier, Look Young & Take Command Of All Situations

William Alexander Oribello led a fascinating life. At an early age he encountered angelic-like beings who materialized and taught him much about esoterica while growing up and through adulthood. He taught many classes, wrote many works and assisted in the well being of hundreds of students worldwide.

Though he has ascended from this world, Inner Light has tried to honor his memory by keeping his books, videos, audio tapes and a number of magical kits in stock.

One of his most important contributions was to ANGELS OF THE LORD, a work in which he gives specifics for allowing your individual guardian angel to assist in worldly matters BIG and small. Long out of print and the master lost, copies of this amazing volume recently arrived from a distributor in Europe who was going out of business.

In ANGELS OF THE LORD, you will learn Oribello's "secret formula" for using different colored candles to enhance your spiritual work with angels, as well as specific times that best work for establishing a communications link with heavenly realms.

We are offering this work with a dynamic MAGIC OF THE INNER LIGHT audio CD narrated by the gifted teacher himself in which he reveals secret words, meditations and candle burning techniques to feel healthier, look younger and take command of all situations. And if you order NOW we will include as a BONUS special commanding oil and "healing" candle, as well as a privately published copy of his COSMIC MYSTERIES UNVEILED, in which William reveals 16 Arcane Techniques by which the practitioner may prepare for Higher Guidance. For all this material we are asking the very reasonable price of $40 + $5.00 S/H. Simply ask for Oribello's Angels Of The Lord Blessings Kit.

Gypsy Witch Presents THAT HOODOO THAT YOU DO SO WELL

Catchy Words To A Song? Folklore? Mumbo Jumbo? Superstition? Or A Belief System So Strong And Powerful Millions Of Believers Still Practice It All Over The World?

TROPICAL SPELLS -- ALSO KNOWN AS HOODOO & VOODOO -- IS A BLEND OF CARIBBEAN MAGICK SO COMMANDING THAT IT HAS BEEN PASSED ON THROUGH FAMILIES AND SOCIAL CONTACTS FOR HUNDREDS OF YEARS DESPITE WIDESPREAD ATTEMPTS TO WIPE IT OUT

Generally thought of among “educated people” as inherently evil or nothing more than a system of superstitious beliefs, in reality tapping into the forces behind Caribbean Magic allows people access to supernatural energies to improve their daily lives by gaining power in many areas of life, including luck, money, love, divination, health, employment and sometimes – when necessary – revenge.

NOT EVIL OR OF THE DEVIL!

Those who have unsuccessfully tried to eradicate this religion have long accused its adherents of being devil worshippers knowing fully well that this is a BIG LIE! The TRUTH is that when African slaves were brought to America they were stripped of their religious beliefs and family connections. The beliefs and customs brought to America by African slaves mingled with the belief customs and botanical knowledge of Native Americans and with the Christian, Jewish and pagan folklore of European immigrants. In fact, not only is God’s providence a factor in such practices (which we have collectively placed under the category of Caribbean Magic to simplify matters), but God is, Himself, the archetypal hoodoo doctor. Obvious parallels between Moses and magic occur in the Biblical accounts of his confrontation with Pharaoh in which he performed “miracles” such as turning his staff into a snake. His greatest feat of conjure was using his powers to help free the Hebrews from slavery.

Not surprising, as in many other folk religions, magical, and medical practices, extensive use is made of herbs, minerals, parts of animals’ bodies, and an individual’s possessions. Contact with ancestors or other spirits of the dead is an important practice within the conjure tradition, and the recitation of Psalms from the Bible is also considered magically effective in Caribbean Magic.

DOZENS AND DOZENS OF SPELLS, SIMPLE RITUALS AND A BONUS RARE MANUSCRIPT

Tapping into his vast reservoir of “forbidden” and arcane knowledge, editor Dragonstar has compiled a modern adaptation of the many popular spells that go to make up the backbone of Caribbean Magic. Here are spells to attract a person; spells to wish someone out of your life; a breakup spell; money spells; spells to change someone’s mind; cleansing and protection rituals and so much more that will reward you immensely for the small amount of time it will take you to gain an understanding of a system that is remarkably simple and normally includes the use of ordinary objects to make these spells work like a magnet in your life.

RARE BONUS – Included as part of this remarkable large format book is a manuscript that has been almost impossible to secure in the last fifty years. Known as The Black Pullet – or the Hen With The Golden Eggs. This work combines the Science of Magical Talismans and Rings; the art of Necromancy and the Kabbalah, for conjuring the aerial and infernal spirits, sylphs, undines, and gnomes; for acquiring knowledge of the secret sciences; for discovering treasures, for the gaining of power to command all beings, and for unmasking all evil spells and sorceries.

GYPSY WITCH SPELL BOOK

Ritualistic Secrets Of Sorcery, Shamanism, Witchcraft, Magic and Fortune Telling

A RARE—CENTURIES OLD—COLLECTION OF CUSTOMS, USAGES AND CEREMONIES OF GYPSY CLANS IN MATTERS OF WITCHCRAFT, LOVE POTIONS, SPELL CASTING AND FORTUNE TELLING

Many believe the gypsies to be a mysterious race who possess supernatural powers. There has even been speculation that the various clans originated from outer space and migrated here from beyond the stars eons ago, trying to mix in (unsuccessfully) with the rest of the world's population. They have their own language, their own life style, their own moral code and travel like nomads from place to place as if searching for their true home. Outsiders are not welcome. They do not share their occult secrets with others, their knowledge being handed down from generation to generation via oral tradition.

This Volume Covers Such Fascinating Topics As: Shamanism, Sorcery, Vindictive And Mischievous Magic · Charms And Conjurations To Cure And Heal · Gypsy Exorcisms · A Curious Old Italian "Secret" · The Magic Virtues Of Garlic · Calling Upon The Spirits Of Earth And Air · Egg Lore And Egg Proverbs · To Cure Or Protect Animals · The Recovery Of Stolen Property · The Haunts And Habits Of Witches · Bogeys And Humbugs · The Principles Of Gypsy Witch Fortune Telling · Romance Based On Chance Or Hope · Gypsy Magic Spells And Secret Children's Rhymes · Gypsy Witch Amulets · Magic By Moonlight At The Cross Road · Lilith, The Child Stealer And The Powers Of Fairies - Merry, Mad Or Sad

With this manual you can learn to practice the spells, ceremonies and rituals of Gypsy Witches and become a practicing Oracle in your own right.

THOUSANDS CLAIM MIRACULOUS CURES THROUGH USE OF OLD PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH MAGICAL POW-WOWS! PRACTICED FOR CENTURIES BY DEVOUT CHRISTIANS, POW WOWS HAS BECOME A HIDDEN RELIGION WITHIN A RELIGION DRIVEN UNDERGROUND BY NEEDLESS PERSECUTION.

Over 200 Remedies Handed Down From Generation To Generation

For centuries, people have been using the Holy Scripture to induce magickal principles. Some of this has come down to us in the magickal practices called Pow-Wows. The majority of these ancient techniques have been handed down from generation to generation mostly by word of mouth. Many have no idea that other practitioners of the ancient art even exist. The rise of evangelical Christianity has forced many Pow-Wow adepts to go underground, or even give up practicing altogether.

For a long time churches have taught that all magick is inherently evil and that anyone who practices it is to be condemned and possibly even put to death. This has little actually to do with a few verses in the Bible that speak against witches and diviners, and more to do with the church power base that has held control over the people for centuries.

THE GODS' MACHINES

FROM STONEHENGE TO CROP CIRCLES

WUN CHOK BONG

The Gods' Machines

OPENS THE DOOR TO THE FUTURE OF POWER TECHNOLOGY AND UNLIMITED TRAVEL THROUGHOUT THE GALAXY

In over 500 pages, researcher Wun Chok Bong shows how “unknown” phenomena from Angkor Wat to Stonehenge to crop circles are actually powerhouses built by an advanced extraterrestrial civilization for tapping electromagnetic energy. Drawing on archaeological evidence, the author states that Megalithic sites such as Stonehenge are constructed with quartz and iron-rich stones with electrical conduction properties also found atop Aztec temples and inside crop circles.

According to his well drawn upon documentation, these stones served as dry cell batteries when heated and stressed and supplied energy to the builders' traveling vehicles. Most interesting the author has tested his theory on today's crop circles.

Researchers claim Moldavite opens
Interdimensional Doorways

The rare stone Moldavite can only be found along the remote Moldau River in Czechoslovakia. Scientists have determined that it fell to Earth 15 million years ago.

The stone is believed to give its wearer enhanced "powers of perception" bordering on the supernatural. It vibrates 80 times faster than quartz and enables the participant to tie a direct line into the higher dimensional communicate systems.

It is also a way of immediately clearing and aligning the entire chakara system and, according to the level of awareness reached, it will make the connection to the so-called 8th chakra or "telepathic receiver band."

LEARN HOW THE BIBLE IS USED AS A TALISMAN IN CARIBBEAN MAGIC, ROOTWORK AND CONJURATION

Those who practice Hoodoo or Caribbean Magic, Rootwork or Conjunction, believe that the Bible is the great conjure book of all time in all the world. It has many functions for the practitioner, especially as a source of spells. Hoodoo practitioners especially attribute the Psalms as important for spellwork. The Bible, however, is not just a source of spells, but is itself a conjuring talisman.

It can be taken "to the crossroads," carried for protection, or even left open at specific pages while facing specific directions. Over the centuries, a rich list of spells and conjures have been created making use of verses from both the Old and New Testaments. Many of these spells have been incorporated in this newly compiled, updated, work, TROPICAL SPELLS, HOODOOS AND VOODOOS, which includes a rare reprint of the much sought after magical work known as THE BLACK PULLET.
